NAB Missionaries of the Week

Brandon & Marci Jones
Brazil

Brandon and Marci knew God wanted them to be missionaries. It wasn't until 2015, that God directed them to Brazil, where they have been for the past seven months. Brandon, Marci, and their three children – Daniel, Monica, and Olivia – are continuing to establish new rhythms of life. Brandon is teaching one class per semester at the Baptist Theological Seminary as he deepens his grasp of Portuguese. The rest of the family is also struggling through the language-acquisition process in the midst of all of the other transitions and difficulties. Pray for healthy stress management for all five members of the family, but especially Brandon and Marci as they help their children adjust to this new country. Pray that each of them is able to learn Portuguese.

Pounding Presentation - No Sunday School 10:00 a.m.

We will welcome the Lowthers with an old fashioned "Pounding," (pounds of a staple food item). Actually, it would be less confusing to ignore the term "pounding" and just call it a food/paper goods shower. A more modern term might be a "Pantry Shower." Bring food or paper goods. Leave your gifts (unwrapped) in the library or workroom. If you bring frozen food, put it in the kitchen freezer for the presentation. Please leave refrigerated food in the west fridge marked "for Lowthers."
