

“Oppression in the Community”

Nehemiah 5

This is the fourth message in the series, “The Book of Nehemiah: The Faith and Work of Remembering, Rebuilding and Redemption.”

Self-centered oppression threatened the Jewish community with greed, inequality and injustice.

How did Nehemiah address this situation that threatened the lives and unity of the people?

1. With bold _____.

2. With godly _____.

3. With uncommon _____.

Conclusion: How can we make a difference in our world often characterized by self-centered oppression?

With God’s wisdom, power and example through Jesus Christ, _____ self-centered oppression with

_____ !