NAB Missionaries of the Week

Paul & Melissa Ewing
NAB Missionaries in Japan

Paul serves as the NAB field director for Japan and works closely with the Japan Baptist Conference. They helped plant Komyo Christian Church. They are currently on home assignment, and when they return, they will be planting a new church alongside a national pastor. Pray for Paul and Melissa during this transition period, both their home assignment and the ministry ahead of them upon their return to Japan next year.

Thank You

To CBC: Thank you for your prayers, birthday/get-well cards and those who visited while I was in the Leisure Home the first time. Also, for the flowers that were sent to me while I was in the Great Bend hospital. They did much for my morale. I am back at Leisure Home receiving therapy to gain back leg strength with the goal of coming home soon. My room # is 14. Feel free to visit and the best time would be after 4:00 p.m. during the week, and on weekends, anytime in the afternoon. – Marion Meschberger

Thank You

Thank you everyone at Calvary Baptist Church for your support and encouragement over the years while we served in the youth ministry. Thank you as well for your continued support and encouragement as we transition into the school as teachers. We look forward to continue being a part of the church and serving with you all to advance the gospel of Jesus Christ as God calls each one of us. - Isaac and Kalyn Burnett

Hello Congregation,

Please be aware that the church is accepting silent bids for the Outreach Center. This will be advertised in local papers. If you know anyone who has interest in the building, please have them contact the church for additional information. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask a Trustee or Deacon. Thank you.
