NAB Missionaries of the Week

Ryan & Clarissa Sidhom

River City Church in Vancouver, Washington

River City does their Sunday gatherings differently, rotating each month through a rhythm they describe as study/serve/study/play. The first and third Sundays are a standard worship gathering; the second Sunday is a community service project; the fourth Sunday is a time for fellowship, usually involving games or food. Through this unique rhythm, this small church plant is having an impact on their community and seeing people choose to follow Jesus. Pray for this Sunday's Easter service as they gather to pray, reflect, and then deliver hot soup to houseless neighbors in their city.

Thank You

Thank you so much for the lovely flowers. I try to keep cut flowers in my home and haven't been able to get any. So, these really have blessed me. Thanks again, Gayla Meroniuk

ARROWS Artwork

Please notice on the back of the sermon notes insert, that we are sharing artwork created by one of the ARROWS children during their recent lesson. We will continue to feature the other children's artwork in the coming weeks. We are so grateful for this children's ministry and for Kylie Meyer and her helpers who are helping kids to learn about our great God and his love.

Flower Shop Closing

With Freund's Flower Shop in Stafford closing this week, it is difficult for CBC to purchase and provide flowers for those with surgeries and hospital stays, or other times of needing encouragement. Consequently, in the future, we plan to send cards and notes to encourage those in these situations. Thank you for your understanding. --CBC Flower Committee.
