NAB Missionary of the Week

Kristi TenClay – Cameroon

Kristi has been serving in Cameroon since 2010, teaching missionary children and international students at Rain Forest International School in Yaoundé. Earlier this year, she completed her role at RFIS and has begun a mini home assignment to visit supporting churches and figure out where God will next invite her to serve. Pray for Kristi's travels, as well as her discernment process.

Thank You

We appreciate all of the love we received after bringing home baby Kysen. Thank you so much for the meals, gifts, and prayers. We are thankful for such an amazing and loving church family! – Matt, Olivia, Adie, & Ky Hildebrand

Thank You

Thank you so much for the recognition of my retirement from teaching Sunday School. The roses and Bromeliad are beautiful. I especially appreciate the scripture plaque. Our church family has a lot of thoughtful people who say kind things. Thankyou. There are many faithful servants of God who keep our church functioning. I appreciate all of you and the moral support and love that I feel. Thank you.
– Vangie Wendelburg

Towels Left Behind From VBS

Several towels were left after VBS week. They are in Lost and Found on the file cabinets in the hall by the kitchen.

“... Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

And all were astonished at the
